VETERAN OF MANY WARS TESTIFIES

James F. J. Archibald, Chief
Witness in Arlington
Hotel Suit.

TELLS OF TRANSACTION

War Correspondent and Soldier of Fortune Has a Remarkable Martial Record.

One of the interesting features developed yesterday in the case of William Corcoran Hill and Arthur D. Addison, who are suing Woodbury Blair and the National Savings and Trust Co., trustees of the Eustis estate, for $25,000 and $45,000, respectively, commission on the sale of the Arlington Hotel property, was the testimony relating to James F. J. Archibald, who claims $25,000 commission for the sale of the property, contending that it was through his instrumentality that the property found a purchaser. The case is on trial before a jury in Chief Justice Chabrough's court, and was attended yesterday by men and women well known in the social world.

Testimony showed that Archibald, who was present in the court shortly after the deal had been consummated, had written to the trustees of the Eustis estate, the former owners of the Arlington Hotel property, to give credit for the amount of the commission, amounting to $25,000, and send to Senator Dupont of Delaware $45,000 which he had borrowed from him, deposit $25,000 in the National Savings and Trust Co. to his credit, and pay the balance of $15,000 to George Howard, president of the New Arlington Hotel Company and treasurer of the National Savings and Trust Co., as his share of the commission.

Mr. Howard said on the stand he had known Mr. Archibald ever since the Spanish-American war, but that he had never had any business dealings with him with the exception of the present one.

The case will be continued this morning.

Archibald's Record.

Mr. Archibald, who is only forty-four years old, has a remarkable martial record. According to "Who's Who" he is a graduate of the Ohio Wesleyan University, and served in the Chinese-Japanese war as war correspondent, and went with Gen. Miles through labor riots, took part in the Sioux campaign, and participated in the last Apache campaign. Mr. Archibald was a volunteer aid-de-camp of the Fifth Army Corps in the Spanish war; served in the Santiago campaign, and was on the first scouting expedition. He says he was the first man wounded in the war with Spain, being shot through the left arm in an engagement that lasted about three hours. Not content with this he took part in the Chippewa campaign on Leech Lake, and arranged the surrender of the hostiles.

Mr. Archibald says he was with the army of occupation of Cuba on the staff of Gen. Ludlow. His experiences do not end here, as he went with the British forces in the Sudan, in 1899, and in 1900, he was with the British army in the South African war until Pretoria was occupied by the British. Mr. Archibald says he was wounded in the battle of Pretoria. He remained with the British army two months, and changing climates and choosing another scene of excitement he was with Castro's army under Gen. Velutini during the Barcelona campaign in Venezuela, and later in the events of allied forces against Venezuela.

Again a change. Mr. Archibald says he served with the Philippine constabulary against the Ladrone, and again he changed his field of activities and he took himself to the theater of war between Japan and Russia. He says he was with the Russian army, representing a New York illustrated weekly. He is the bearer of numerous marks and medals of distinction, and the Chinese government bestowed on him the rank of "Mandarin."

A Significant Fact:—

The United States Trust Company

—has more depositors than any other bank in Washington

Why?

The continued, substantial growth of the United States Trust Company is explained by the words "SERVICE" and "SAFETY." And when we use the term "Service" we have in mind SPECIFIC services such as we are rendering our thousands of depositors daily—services that we are most willing to explain to you and to offer you.

The financial strength of the United States Trust Company, the experience and integrity of its officers, and its direct control by the United States Treasury are your safeguards.

Banking Department

Our facilities for handling the bank accounts of individuals, firms, and corporations are unexcelled—both as to the character and intelligence and knowledge of our employees and of our material equipment. We pay 3 per cent interest—compounded semi-annually—on savings accounts and allow interest on deposits subject to check.

Travelers' Cheques

We issue and recommend Travelers' Cheques of the American Bankers' Association, because of their safety and simplicity. These may be cashed in any part of the world without identification, except owner's signature, and will be replaced if lost or stolen. Ask for one of our booklets, containing much valuable information.

Safe Deposit Department

You cannot afford to risk a possible loss of priceless heirlooms, valuable papers, jewelry, etc., when the absolute security of a Safe Deposit Box may be had for the small cost of $2 a year up. Our safe deposit boxes are contained in large fire and burglar proof vaults.

Bring your valuables to us for safe-keeping and be relieved of the fear that they may be stolen, lost, or destroyed.

A day's delay may mean that you've waited just one day too many.
